

Announcement of Faculty of Education, Thaksin University

Subject : Policy of not accepting neither gifts nor profits from performing duties
(No Gift Policy) Fiscal year B.E. 2568

The Faculty of Education, Thaksin University, focuses on fostering ethics, transparency, and integrity in carrying out its duties. It emphasizes the importance of operating in accordance with the Faculty's mission, ensuring effective and efficient management systems that are ethical and transparent, in line with the national strategy on anti-corruption and the integrated anti-corruption and misconduct plan. This is done to promote a culture of integrity in the workplace, maintain ethics and morality, and avoid actions that may influence discretion or decision-making in the performance of duties, which could lead to discrimination or result in conflicts of interest and corruption. Exercising the authority under Section 31 of the Thaksin University Act B.E. 2551 (2008), the Faculty of Education hereby announces the "No Gift Policy," which prohibits the acceptance of any gifts or presents in connection with official duties. This applies to administrators, faculty members, and staff of the Faculty of Education, Thaksin University, who are not to accept any gifts or presents from external parties or those contacting the Faculty. Instead, well-wishing should be expressed through greeting cards or messages via social media during various festive seasons, rather than receiving gifts or presents.

It is hereby announced and to adhered to all.

This announcement is made on October 1 B.E. 2567
